

Controllers Comments

It was great to hear universal compliments from competitors about the event. Richard's planning and Helen's organisation gave me very little to do. Great to have such a stress free (at least for me) event.

As ever there were a few disappointed competitors who failed to register punches. Perhaps we need to re-confirm that it is always the competitor's responsibility to ensure that they have correctly registered a punch.

Chris